Dave Pueringer, 616 ½ /Front St
Steve & Lois Hensel, 617 Laurel St, Loide Oil and Vinegars

The Chair recognized Marie Kirsch, 707 Laurel St, who thanked the Parking Commission for their work and said that she understood why they came to parking meters as a solution to the parking problem downtown. She stated that the meters may be a compromise to help the turnover of parking spaces.

The Chair closed the floor to public comment at 9:28 p.m.

Council Members Pritschet and Stunek agreed that parking meters would not be effective downtown.

Council Member O'Day reminded the Council that the recommendations made by the Parking Commission were a system to put in place gradually.

Council Member Johnson stated that he agreed that the recommendations all worked together as a system. He represents the public and because the public opposes meters, he will support the public opinion.

Mayor Badeaux stated that he is the liaison to the Parking Commission, he was hoping for discussion like tonight's with the recommendations that were made because that is how government is supposed to work.

MOVED AND SECONDED BY COUNCIL MEMBERS ERICKSON AND JOHNSON TO DIRECT THE PARKING COMMISSION TO TWEAK THEIR RECOMMENDATIONS LESS THE PARKING METERS BASED ON PUBLIC COMMENT TO BE APPROVED BY CITY COUNCIL.
